Brazilian Military Research on Invincible Defense Technology

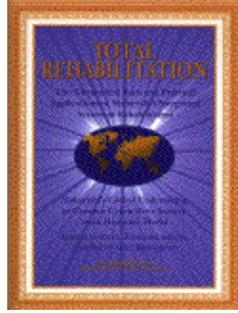

This chart illustrates the significant improvements in health and discipline which were experienced by the officers and cadets practicing the Transcendental Meditation® (TM) program in the State of Bahia, Brazil. These improvements resulted in improved community relations as measured by a dramatic increase (1,206%) in the number of positive reports received by the Police Department from the citizens of Salvador

In the Police Academy of Piauí, Brazil, the meditating cadets likewise experienced significant improvements in health, behavior, attitude, and academic performance.
